ANNUAL REPORT : 2025 - 2026

DESK FROM THE MANAGING TRUSTEE:.

Respected members of the Board, distinguished guests, dear supporters, and my beloved colleagues,

It is indeed a matter of great pride and privilege for me to stand before you today as the Managing Trustee of Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust.

Since its establishment in the year 2022, BMCT has been continuously striving for the last four glorious years to serve society with dedication, compassion, and commitment. Our journey, though still in its early stages, has been filled with meaningful efforts aimed at bringing positive change in the lives of the underprivileged and marginalized sections of our community.

The vision of our Trust is very clear — to build an inclusive and equitable society through continuous social intervention. This vision guides every step we take and inspires us to work tirelessly for the betterment of humanity.

Our mission is rooted in action. We are committed for promoting social welfare activities, empowering women, and supporting key sectors such as education, healthcare, and environmental protection. At the same time, we remain deeply focused on the welfare of weaker and deprived sections of society, who need our support the most.

Over the past four years, BMCT has made sincere efforts to reach out to those in need. From supporting education, especially for the girl child, to extending healthcare assistance and responding to emergencies like flood relief, we have consistently worked towards uplifting society. Our initiatives in environmental awareness and community development have also contributed to building a more responsible and sustainable future.

However, our journey does not end here. In fact, it has only just begun. There are still many challenges ahead, and many lives waiting to be touched. With the continued support of our Board members, dedicated team, volunteers, and well-wishers, I am confident that we will achieve greater milestones in the years to come.

Let us move forward together with renewed determination, stronger commitment, and a shared vision to create a society that is just, inclusive, and compassionate.

Before I conclude, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to our Board members and all those who have stood by us and contributed to our mission. Your support is our strength.

Thank you all.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP AT BONGAON J.R.DHAR HOSPITAL

A Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized on 24th June, 2025 by Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, in association with the Blood Centre of Dr. J.R. Dhar Sub-Divisional Hospital, Bongaon. The primary objective of the camp was to address the ongoing shortage of blood and to encourage voluntary blood donation as a life-saving humanitarian act.

The camp witnessed an overwhelming response from local residents, youth volunteers, and well-wishers of the organization. A total of 155 units of blood were collected during the camp, reflecting the strong sense of social responsibility and community spirit among the participants. The donors enthusiastically came forward, demonstrating their willingness to contribute towards saving lives.

A team of qualified medical professionals and staff from the hospital ensured that the entire donation process was conducted smoothly, safely, and hygienically. Proper medical screening of donors was carried out prior to donation, and all necessary precautions were taken to maintain health and safety standards. Post-donation care, including refreshments and rest arrangements, was also provided to all donors.

The event was well-organized with active support from volunteers of the Trust and Staff of the hospital, who managed registration, coordination, and assistance throughout the camp. The local community appreciated the initiative and extended their encouragement for such noble activities.

This blood donation camp was organized as part of the Trust's ongoing commitment to support emergency medical needs, particularly during periods of blood scarcity. The success of the camp highlights the importance of collective efforts in addressing critical healthcare challenges.

Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust expresses its sincere gratitude to all donors, medical staff, and volunteers whose cooperation and dedication made the event a grand success. The Trust remains committed to organizing similar initiatives in the future for the welfare of society.

LEGAL AWARENESS CAMP ON HUMAN RIGHTS-CLOTH DSTRIBUTION PROGRAMME WAS CONDUCTED AT BONGAON CORRECTIONAL HOME

Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, organized a Legal Awareness Programme on Human Rights along with a Cloth Distribution initiative on 11th November, 2025 at the Sub-Correctional Home, Bongaon. The programme was conducted in collaboration with the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), North 24 Parganas, with the aim of promoting awareness of legal rights and extending humanitarian support to women inmates.

The event was graced by the presence of the Hon'ble Secretary of the District Legal Services Authority, Barasat, along with other distinguished representatives. Their presence added significance to the programme and reflected the importance of legal literacy among marginalized sections of society.

During the programme, clothes were distributed among 40 woman inmates of the Sub-Correctional Home as a gesture of care, dignity, and social responsibility. This initiative aimed to address their basic needs and bring a sense of comfort and support to their lives.
A key highlight of the programme was the legal awareness session conducted by the Hon'ble Secretary of DLSA. The inmates were sensitized about their fundamental human rights and various legal entitlements available to them under the law. The session also emphasized access to legal aid, fair treatment, and the importance of awareness in safeguarding their rights. The interaction was informative and empowering, encouraging the inmates to better understand their legal position and avenues for assistance.
The initiative undertaken by Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust was highly appreciated by the District Legal Services Authority. The collaborative effort successfully combined legal education with humanitarian service, reflecting the Trust's commitment to social welfare, justice, and inclusivity.

This programme stands as a meaningful step towards empowering women inmates through knowledge, support, and compassion, reinforcing the belief that every individual deserves dignity, awareness, and an opportunity for a better future.

HEALTH CHECK UP CAMP ORGANIZED AT "ASHRAM BARI" TANGRA COLONY,BONGAON

A health check-up camp was successfully organized by Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, on 11th December 2025 at 'Ashram Bari', Tangra Colony. The camp was primarily aimed at providing essential healthcare services to people belonging to the weaker and underprivileged sections of society, who often lack access to proper medical facilities.

The programme witnessed the active participation of renowned medical practitioners, including Dr. Gopal Podder, Dr. Asish Kanti Hira, Dr. Biswajit Halder, and Dr. Puspen Roy, all of whom extended their valuable services voluntarily. Their dedication and compassionate approach ensured that the beneficiaries received proper consultation, diagnosis, and guidance regarding their health conditions.

To facilitate accurate diagnosis, Podder Laboratory, Bongaon was engaged for conducting necessary clinical investigations. Various essential tests such as ECG, haemoglobin (Hb), creatinine, and blood glucose were carried out as per the prescriptions of the attending doctors. The availability of these diagnostic services at the camp itself proved highly beneficial for the patients, saving both time and cost.

In addition to medical consultation and diagnostic services, essential medicines were distributed free of cost to the patients for their immediate treatment. This initiative greatly supported those who could not afford regular medication.

A total of 85 individuals were examined and treated during the camp. The beneficiaries expressed their satisfaction and gratitude for the quality medical care and attention they received. The local residents warmly appreciated the efforts of the Trust and the participating doctors for their selfless service and commitment to community welfare.

The camp was a significant step towards promoting healthcare awareness and accessibility among the underprivileged, reflecting the Trust's ongoing commitment to social welfare and humanitarian service.

A PROGRAMME WAS CONDUCTED AT "ASHRAM BARI" TANGRA COLONY FOR DISTRIBUTION OF BLANKETS AMONG THE POOR AND VULNERABLE INDIVIDUALS

A Blanket Distribution Programme was successfully organized by Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, during the second session on 11th December 2025. The initiative was undertaken with the primary objective of extending humanitarian support to people belonging to the weaker and underprivileged sections of society.

The programme was planned in response to the harsh winter conditions, which particularly affect the poor and destitute who lack adequate protection against the cold. Recognizing this urgent need, the Trust took a compassionate step to provide relief and ensure warmth and comfort to the vulnerable sections of the community.

During the programme, a total of 65 blankets were distributed among needy individuals after proper identification to ensure that the assistance reached the most deserving beneficiaries. The distribution process was carried out in an organized and systematic manner, maintaining dignity and respect for all recipients.

Members and volunteers of the Trust actively participated in the programme and played a crucial role in its smooth execution. Their dedication, coordination, and sincere efforts ensured that the distribution was conducted efficiently and without any inconvenience to the beneficiaries.

The recipients expressed their heartfelt gratitude towards the Trust for this timely and thoughtful initiative. For many of them, the blankets provided much-needed protection against the cold and brought a sense of care and support from the community.

The programme concluded successfully, highlighting the Trust's ongoing commitment to social welfare and humanitarian service. Such initiatives not only provide immediate relief but also strengthen the bond between the organization and the community it serves, reinforcing the spirit of compassion and social responsibility.Top of Form

PROMOTION OF EDUCATIONAL INITIATIVE

Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, undertook a significant educational initiative by donating a total of 65 books along with one almirah to Mondalpara High School for the purpose of enriching and preserving the school library. This noble programme was formally inaugurated on 11th January, 2026 by the Additional District Inspector of Schools,Bongaon Circle marking an important step towards strengthening educational resources for students.

The event was organized within the school premises in a dignified and cordial atmosphere. It was graced by the presence of the Headmaster, Shri Debasish Ghosh, along with other respected teachers of the institution. Members of the Panchayat Samity, ex-students, and retired teachers were also present, making the occasion both meaningful and memorable.

The donated books covered a variety of subjects, aimed at enhancing the academic knowledge and reading habits of the students. The almirah provided by the Trust will ensure the safe storage and proper maintenance of these valuable resources, thereby contributing to the long-term development of the school library. This initiative reflects the Trust's commitment to promoting education and supporting institutions that serve students from diverse socio-economic backgrounds.

During the programme, the speakers highlighted the importance of access to quality reading materials in shaping young minds and building a knowledgeable society. The contribution of Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust was widely appreciated by all present.

In recognition of this generous and thoughtful initiative, the school authorities honoured the Board Members of the Trust as a token of gratitude for their valuable contribution towards the promotion of education.

This programme stands as a testament to the Trust's dedication to social welfare and its continuous efforts to empower students through educational support and community engagement.

REPORT ON CELEBRATION OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2026
DISTRIBUTION OF SEWING MACHINES AMOUNG THE POOR WOMAN
FOR THE PURPOSE OF UPLIFTMENT OF THEIR ECONOMIC STATUS

On the occasion of International Women's Day, Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, organized a meaningful social welfare programme on 8th March, 2026, with the objective of empowering women belonging to economically weaker sections of society. As part of the celebration, the Trust distributed two sewing machines among selected underprivileged women. This initiative was undertaken to support their economic independence and to provide them with a sustainable means of livelihood. The beneficiaries were carefully identified based on their financial condition and willingness to utilize the opportunity for self-employment.

The programme highlighted the importance of women's empowerment and self-reliance. Members of the Trust emphasized that skill-based support such as providing sewing machines can significantly contribute to improving the financial condition of disadvantaged families and promote dignity and confidence among women.

The beneficiaries expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the Trust for this valuable support, which will enable them to earn and support their families. The initiative reflects the Trust's continued commitment towards social welfare and upliftment of marginalized communities.
The event concluded with a pledge to undertake more such initiatives in the future, aiming at empowering women and fostering inclusive development in society.

INSTALLATION OF SAINTARY NAPKIN VENDING MACHINE AT (1).CHHAIGHARIA THAKUR HARIDAS BALIKA BIDYALAYA (2) GANRAPOTA GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL & SARADA CHARAN UCCHA VIDYALAYA

Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust, Bongaon, observed International Women's Day on 8th March 2026 with the objective of promoting social justice, gender equality, and the upliftment of women in society. The programme was organized as part of the Trust's continued commitment to empowering women and addressing issues related to their health, dignity, and self-reliance.

On this significant occasion, the Trust undertook an important initiative to promote menstrual hygiene by installing Sanitary Napkin Vending Machines along with Incinerators in three girls' schools, namely Chhaigharia Thakur Haridas Balika Vidyalaya, Naraharipur Sarada Charan High School, and Ganrapota Girls' High School. These installations aim to ensure easy access to sanitary products for adolescent girls and provide a safe and hygienic method for disposal, thereby fostering a healthier school environment and encouraging regular attendance.

In addition to this, the Trust also focused on the economic empowerment of women by distributing two sewing machines to two women belonging to weaker sections of society. This initiative was intended to help them become self-reliant and generate sustainable income, thereby improving their socio-economic condition and enhancing their dignity.

The programme was carried out smoothly with the active participation of members and volunteers of the Trust. The beneficiaries expressed their sincere gratitude for the support extended to them and appreciated the efforts of the organization in addressing both health and livelihood concerns.

The successful arangement of the programme reflects the Trust's dedication towards building an inclusive society where women are empowered, healthy, and self-sufficient. Such initiatives play a vital role in fostering awareness, confidence, and opportunities for women, ultimately contributing to their overall development and well-being.

SPORTS PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGD GIRLS

On the occasion of International Women's Day, 8th March 2026, Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust (BMCT) undertook a meaningful social initiative aimed at encouraging young Girl talents from economically weaker sections of society. The programme was organized with the objective of promoting sportsmanship, inclusion, and equal opportunity, especially among underprivileged youth.

As part of this initiative, BMCT extended support to the Girl trainees of G.G. Dishary Football Academy, situated at Ganrapota, Bongaon, in the district of North 24 Parganas. The Trust distributed essential sports materials, including footballs, football shoes, agility ladders, and other training equipment required for skill development and regular practice. These resources are crucial for nurturing the physical abilities and overall growth of the young trainees.

The beneficiaries of this programme were primarily children and adolescents belonging to enthusiasm for football but lack access to proper training tools and infrastructure. By providing these materials, the Trust aimed to reduce this gap and create a more supportive environment for their development.

The event was conducted in a simple yet impactful manner, in the presence of academy members, local supporters, and representatives of BMCT. The initiative not only boosted the morale of the young players but also instilled a sense of encouragement and belonging among them. It served as a reminder that talent exists in every corner of society and only needs the right support to flourish.

This effort reflects the core values of Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust—promoting inclusivity, empowering youth, and supporting holistic development. Aligning with the spirit of International Women's Day, the programme emphasized equality, opportunity, and collective progress.

Through such initiatives, BMCT reaffirms its commitment to ensuring that no individual is left behind and that every aspiring talent is given the chance to move forward with confidence, dignity, and determination.

In conclusion, as we reflect upon the journey of Basanti Memorial Charitable Trust over the past year, we do so with a deep sense of satisfaction, responsibility, and renewed commitment. The year 2025–2026 has truly been a significant chapter in our continuing efforts to serve society and uphold the values with which our Trust was established in 2022.

Our work across various sectors—social welfare, women empowerment, education, healthcare, environmental protection, and support to weaker and deprived sections—has reaffirmed our belief that even small, sincere efforts can bring meaningful change. The successful organisation of multiple programmes, including relief initiatives in times of natural calamities, stands as a testament to our dedication and collective spirit.

However, we are equally aware that much remains to be done. The challenges faced by underprivileged communities, particularly in remote and tribal areas, continue to demand our focused attention and sustained action. As we move forward, we shall strive to expand our reach, strengthen our initiatives, and adopt more effective measures to achieve our objectives.

Our vision of building an inclusive and equitable society is not merely an aspiration but a continuous responsibility. With the unwavering support of our Board members, committed team, volunteers, and well-wishers, we are confident of overcoming challenges and achieving greater milestones in the years ahead.

Before I conclude, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to each and every individual associated with this noble mission. Your encouragement, cooperation, and trust have been the foundation of our success.

Let us continue this journey together with unity, compassion, and determination.

Thank you all.
